

BALTIMORE CITY LGBTQ COMMISSION

General Body Meeting Notes

January 28, 2019

6:30 p.m.

War Memorial Building

Community Building

- Members participated in “ice-breaker”-type activities to build teamwork and relationships among the group.

Mission, Vision & Values

- Members engaged in an activity to discuss commission mission, vision and values.
- Statements were workshopped and edited by the group.
- Homework for Jabari: to reword the edited statements and send out to group for feedback.
- Homework for Commission: to review the edited statements and provide feedback.

Bylaws

- Tabled until next meeting.
- Sample bylaws will be sent to the group for consideration.

Committee Guidelines & Alignment

- Jabari will schedule a meeting with co-chairs.
- Jabari will plan to attend all upcoming committee meetings.
- There is a need for committees to understand how to run meetings and which business should take place at each meeting.
- Jabari will share his strategic plan which will help committees better understand their work.
- Overview of flowchart: commission members represent the community’s needs and interests. Jabari takes the feedback to higher-up leadership to work on solutions. Commission members may be called to volunteer to attend meetings, staff events, but substantive work is done by LGBTQ Liaison. Commission members should not feel like project managers.

No official actions were taken.
